Privately-Owned Vehicle (POV) Mileage Rate Change

Approved by: Deputy Administrator, Management

1 POV Mileage Rate Change

A Background

On January 6, 2006, GSA announced a decrease in the mileage reimbursement rates for federal employees who use POV's while on official travel. This decrease was effective January 1, 2006.

B Reason for Decrease

After the gas price spike in September 2005, the IRS made a special one-time rate adjustment, bringing the mileage rate from 40.5 cents to 48.5 cents per mile. GSA followed the IRS's lead less than a week later. The IRS issued the 2006 standard mileage rates, reducing the rate for use of car. Again, GSA followed the IRS's lead.

C Purpose

This notice informs employees about the POV mileage rate decrease.
